

the resolution of the Petition's specifications without the need to conduct a contested, and potentially contracted hearing.

Some of the potential changes that the parties are discussing are described in Princess's quarterly status report filed with the Court on April 2, 2019. In particular, Princess's status report discusses Carnival's plan potentially to address the Petition's allegation that Carnival's Corporate Compliance Manager lacks sufficient authority to implement Carnival's Environmental Compliance Plan by engaging a compliance consultant in short order to determine the most effective way to address the concerns of the CAM by, for example, possibly creating a new position of Chief Compliance Officer who could provide greater centralized oversight of Carnival's compliance functions, including environmental compliance. In addition, these discussions have addressed the allegedly contumacious conduct concerning the ship visit programs that are the subject to the first specification of the Petition, and the appropriate remediation of the underlying conduct.

Should a hearing on the Petition be necessary, Princess respectfully requests that the hearing be scheduled during the week beginning on Monday May 6, 2019. Princess expects, based on its discussions with the Government, that all parties collectively would need three or four days to present evidence at the hearing. In the event that a hearing is necessary but that the parties are able to narrow the scope of the issues to be contested during the hearing, Princess will promptly inform the Court of any change to the expected duration of the hearing.

RULE 88.9 CERTIFICATION

Counsel for Princess has conferred with the Government, who authorized Princess to represent that it concurs in the requested relief. The Government has informed counsel for Princess that it has separately conferred with the Office of Probation, the Court Appointed Monitor, and the Third Party Auditor, that each of those parties concurs in the requested relief, and that they would also be available to appear for a hearing during the week beginning on Monday May 6, 2019.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Princess, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant this Agreed Motion to Schedule Hearing and for all other relief the Court deems just and proper.
